The Doctor of Occupational Therapy requires a series of prerequisite classes to prepare you for the program’s coursework. OTCAS will use these courses to calculate a separate specific grade point average used in the admission decision. All courses, except for Medical Terminology, must be at least three credit hours. Prerequisite coursework must be at a level for science majors and be completed with a grade of ‘C’ or higher. Online courses are not accepted for science courses with labs.

Additional Information:

- Only one outstanding prerequisite at time of application.
- An official course description or course syllabus may be requested to approve some courses.
- For combined Human Anatomy & Physiology classes, a full academic year curriculum is required.
- All GPAs will be calculated by OTCAS.

This form must be uploaded to OTCAS and submitted by the application deadline.
